TUFF RANKLE - TL STEER SKULL #6554

Tuff Rankle - TL Steer Skull #6554

Tuff Rankle --- This Cowboy Tuff Chex steer has a very large base. He has a small exit process hole. His disposition was not the tested IQ required for "keepers" at DCC. He won't cause any problem hanging on a wall. A very stunning skull.

* Price does not include shipping. Call for shipping cost details*

Trial Shot --- he was one of the few sons of Trial Run and out of a Tempter daughter. He was born at DCC. His horns were ivory colored with more transparency and subtle tones than an elephant's tusk. He was harvested at age 6. That is more horn at age 6 than any steer ever grew on the 1880 trail drives. Includes color photo of Trial Shot at age 5. He is a prize carving skull, will not require feeding, grass or milking.

SWAMP SLABBER - TL STEER SKULL #7325

Swamp Slabber - TL Steer Skull #7325

Swamp Slabber --- This pretty steer was used for a rodeo promotion parade with a large group of steers. Becoming flabbergasted by the monotonous daily routine he got to jumping out of the herd and running for it. On his last parade he ran into a housing area, tore up some flower beds, a cloths line and dived into a backyard pool with the cover on. We purchased the Swamper and he became hamburger. Just didn't work for him.
